The following text is for questions 17 to 19.

A month ago after finishing all my homework, I wanted to relax. While I was walking on the beach on a warm evening, I saw two small children playing with the sand. They found something. It was big, reddish-brown, and made of metal. When I looked at it, I knew immediately that it was an old bomb.

First, I told the children to move away from the bomb. Fortunately, I had my mobile phone with me, so I called the police and told them what we had found. Fifteen minutes later, the police arrived and I explained everything to them. Then I went home again.

The next day, I read in the newspaper that the police had blown up the bomb. It was highly explosive. It had been in the sand on the beach for over sixty years. It was from the Second World War, and it was very dangerous.

17. What is the main idea of paragraph one?
- The bomb was very old.
 - Two children found a bomb
 - The bomb was made of metal.
 - The children avoided the bomb.
18. What did the writer ask the children?
- To call the police.
 - To play around with the sand.
 - To move away from the bomb.
 - To explain everything to the police.
19. Why was the bomb dangerous?
- It was big and made of metal.
 - It had a high explosive power.
 - It had been blown by the police.
 - It was in the sand for over sixty years.

The following text is for questions 20 to 23.

Jasmine is a native flower to some tropical areas in South Asia, Africa and Australia. In India, some varieties of Jasmine are used for religious purposes.

The flower can grow up to 3 meters high and 2 meters wide. It releases its fragrance mostly after the sun sets especially nearing the full moon. Therefore, it is often associated with soothing night-time moods.

The planting of Jasmine is started by putting some cuttings in 3 inch posts within 4 weeks. After the roots grow, they are put into 6 inch pots. The soil in the pots should be kept moist but possible for the water to go through it for optimum growth.

There are some important advantages of Jasmine. In medication, this flower is often used for soothing headaches, stimulating brain, and restoring balance. Its extract is also widely used in the making of perfume.

20. When does Jasmine release the most fragrance?
- In the morning.
 - In the evening.
 - In the afternoon.
 - At dawn.

21. What is the main idea of the last paragraph?
